

The airwaves belong to the people. The Media Conglomerates are supposed to serve the public good and promote democracy, creativity and competition. They do none of these things. Do not give them any more power to destroy independent broadcasters.